Applicant Directions: Complete all 4 parts of this application. Don't rush and put down anything to just get it done. Take your time and think carefully about your answers. Please write very neatly and in black ink. Use extra paper if you need. The quality and neatness of your answers is the first indicator to us of how seriously you want us to consider you for a CIT position in the KidsPlex 2009 Summer Camp!

Part 1: Ask two adults, other than your parents/close relatives, to write letters of reference for you. These letters should tell us about how they know you and what qualities (character, reputation, and abilities) you have that make you a good candidate for being chosen to be a CIT. Ask these adults to put each letter in a sealed envelope and give to you.

Part 2: Please tell us a little about yourself.

Part 4: Please read the following pledge very carefully. When finished, if you are in agreement with what it says, sign and date the pledge. No consideration will be given to your application without your signed agreement.

Pledge: In submitting this application, I am confirming that I want to be a KidsPlex 2009 Summer Camp Counselor in Training (CIT). I am further confirming that I am ready for the responsibilities of a CIT. I promise to take my training seriously and to practice what I am being taught to the best of my abilities. I promise to maintain a positive attitude when being taught and mentored by KidsPlex staff members, including following instructions exactly as given and when necessary, being corrected. I promise to comply with all rules for the CIT program. I promise to maintain the highest standards of personal conduct, including being prepared, on time, honest, truthful, and behaving appropriately in the summer camp setting. I promise to comply with all rules for the CIT program.

I understand that if at any time during my training and mentoring, KidsPlex management determines that I am not conducting myself as described above, I may be dismissed from the CIT program, and perhaps from the summer camp program.
